ARTICLE I

NAME, PLACES OF BUSINESS AND REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

1.1 The name of the corporation shall be Haig Point Utility Company, Inc.

1.2 The principal place of business of the corporation shall be One Sea Pines Circle, Hilton Head Island, South Carolina 29928.

1.3 The corporation may also have offices at such other places, both within and without the State of South Carolina, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or as the business of the corporation may require.

1.4 The registered office and registered agent shall be as designated by the Board of Directors from time to time.

ARTICLE II

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

2.1 The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Directors.

2.2 The number of directors shall be not less than one nor more than seven as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

2.3 At each annual meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting. Each director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he is elected, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his earlier resignation, removal from office, death or incapacity.

2.4 Any vacancy, however occurring, in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors even though less than a quorum or by the sole remaining director and any vacancy created by an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the Board of Directors.

2.5 Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as the directors may by resolution determine. Except as provided in Section 9.2, no notice to the directors of such regular meetings shall be required.

2.6 Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, any Vice-President, or any director, upon notice sent by any usual means of communication not less than four business days before the meeting. Notice of a meeting of directors need not be given any director who signs a waiver of notice either before or after the meeting. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall of itself constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting solely for the purpose of stating his objection, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

2.7 If a meeting, otherwise valid, of the Board of Directors or of any committee is held without call or notice where such is required, any action taken at such meeting shall be deemed ratified by a director or committee member who did not attend, unless after learning of the action taken and of the impropriety of the meeting, he makes prompt objection thereto, and files the same in writing with the Secretary of the corporation.

2.8 At any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the total number of directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Except as otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law, the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of the Directors.

2.9 Action by Directors without a Meeting

2.9.1 Action otherwise taken without a meeting by a majority of the directors or by such larger vote as the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws may require shall be deemed action of the Board of Directors:

2.9.1(a) if all shareholders know of the action taken, and no shareholder makes prompt objection to such action; or

2.9.1(b) if the directors take informal action pursuant to a custom of the corporation known generally to its shareholders, and all directors know of the action taken and no director makes prompt objection thereto.

2.9.2 Action taken without a meeting by a majority of directors or by such larger vote as the Articles of Incorporation may require, shall be deemed action of the Board of Directors if all directors execute either before or after the action is taken, a written consent thereto, and the consent is filed with the records of the corporation.

2.9.3 If a meeting otherwise valid of the Board of Directors is held without call or notice where such is required, any action taken at such meeting shall be deemed ratified by a director who did not attend, unless after learning of the action taken and of the impropriety of the meeting, he makes prompt objection thereto.

2.9.4 Objection by a shareholder, director or committee member shall be effective only if written objection to the holding of the meeting or to any specific action so taken is filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

2.9.5 Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation, an action permitted only when authorized at a meeting of the Board of Directors may nevertheless be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, all members of the Board of Directors consent thereto in writing. The written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors. The consent shall have the same effect as a vote of the Board of Directors for all purposes.

2.10 The Board of Directors, by a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and other committees, each consisting of one or more directors, and may delegate to such committee or committees all of the authority of the Board of Directors, except that no such committee or committees shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors to:

2.10.1 amend the Articles of Incorporation;

2.10.2 adopt a plan of merger, consolidation, or exchange;

2.10.3 recommend to the shareholders the sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation other than in the usual course of its business;

2.10.4 recommend to the shareholders a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or revocation of such dissolution;

2.10.5 declare dividends or other corporate distributions;

2.10.6 adopt or revise a Bylaw of the corporation;

2.10.7 fill vacancies on the Board of Directors; or

2.10.8 issue stock, except by Board of Directors' resolution

The designation of any such committee and the delegation to it of authority shall not relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law. So far as applicable the provisions of these Bylaws relating to the conduct of the meetings of or action without a meeting of the Board of Directors, shall govern the meetings and action without a meeting of the executive or other committees. At any meeting of the executive or other committees, a majority of the total number of members then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence or disqualification of a member of the executive or other committees, the members of the committee present at the meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in place of such absent or disqualified member.

2.11 Removal and Replacement of Directors

2.11.1 The entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

2.11.2 If any or all directors are removed, new directors may be elected at the same meeting.

2.11.3 Any individual director may be removed for cause by affirmative vote of the majority of the members of the Board of Directors at a specially called meeting which shall consider only removal and replacement of such director. "Cause" for removal of a director under this section shall mean fraudulent or dishonest acts, or gross abuse of authority in discharge of duties to the corporation and shall be established after written notice of specific charges and opportunity to meet and refute such charges.

ARTICLE III

POWERS OF THE DIRECTORS

3.1 The Board of Directors may exercise, in addition to the powers and authorities conferred by the Articles of Incorporation and by these Bylaws, all such powers and do all such acts and things which a corporation may legally do, but subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of law, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV

MEETINGS OF THE SHAREHOLDERS

4.1 The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held for the election of directors and the transaction of other business within six months from the end of the fiscal year of the corporation at the principal place of business or at such other place as may be determined from time to time, the exact time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors.

4.2 Special meetings of the shareholders of the corporation may be held either at the place mentioned in the foregoing section or at any other place within or without the State of South Carolina designated by the Board of Directors, Such special meetings may be called by the President, a majority of the Board of Directors, or by the holders of not less than ten percent (10%) of the shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting, except as otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or law.

4.3 Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed delivered when deposited with postage prepaid in the United States mail, addressed to the shareholder at the address appearing on the stock transfer books of the corporation.

4.4 Notice of a meeting of shareholders need not be given any shareholder who signs a waiver of notice, in person or by proxy, either before or after the meeting. The waiver need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at such meeting. Attendance of a shareholder at a meeting, in person or by proxy, shall of itself constitute waiver of notice, except when the Shareholder attends a meeting solely for the purpose of stating his objection, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

4.5 Action taken at any meeting of shareholders, however called and with whatever notice, or with no notice, shall be deemed action of the shareholders taken at a meeting duly called and held on proper notice, if:

All shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting are present in person or by proxy, and no shareholder objects to holding the meeting; or

If a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, no one present objects to holding the meeting, and each absent person entitled to vote at the meeting signs, either before or after the meeting, a written waiver of notice, or consent to the holding of the meeting, or approval of the action taken as shown by the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of all outstanding shares entitled to vote on such action, or their attorneys-in-fact or a proxyholder thereof, and is filed with the Secretary of the corporation as part of the corporate records. Such written consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders and may be stated as such in any certificate or document, including those required to be filed with the Secretary of State.

4.5.1 A shareholder shall not sell his vote to any person, nor shall he issue a proxy to vote for any sum of money or anything of value, except so far as subsection 4.5.6 of this section authorizes irrevocable proxies.

4.5.2 Every shareholder entitled to vote may appoint one or more agents to vote on his behalf. Such appointment shall be by a printed or written proxy executed by the shareholder or by his duly appointed attorney-in-fact, or by a telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by a shareholder.

4.5.3 No proxy shall confer authority to vote at any meeting of the shareholders other than the next meeting, or any adjournment thereof to be held after the date on which the proxy was first sent or given. Every proxy shall be dated as of its execution, and no proxy shall be undated or postdated. Every proxy, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, shall be revocable at the pleasure of the shareholder executing it, and a proxy may be revoked by an instrument which in its terms revokes the proxy, or by a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. The authority of a proxyholder shall not be revoked by death or supervening incapacity of the shareholder executing the proxy unless, before such authority is exercised, written notice of such death or incapacity is filed with the corporate officer responsible for maintaining the list of shareholders.

The presence at a shareholders' meeting of the shareholder appointing a proxy shall not of itself revoke the proxy, but such shareholder may revoke the appointment by giving notice to the corporate officer responsible for maintaining the list of shareholders, or by giving notice in open meeting of the shareholders.

4.5.4 Unless a proxy otherwise specifically provides, any proxyholder shall have the power to appoint in writing a substitute to act in his place.

4.5.5 No proxy shall be solicited on the basis of any proxy statement or other communication, written or oral, containing any statement which was, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact or which omits to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein not false or misleading.

4.5.6 A proxy which is entitled "irrevocable proxy" and which specifically states that it is irrevocable, shall be irrevocable only when it is held by any of the following or by a nominee of any of the following:

4.5.6.1 a pledgee of the shares which are the subject of the proxy;

4.5.6.2 a person who has contracted to purchase the shares which are the subject of the proxy;

4.5.6.3 a creditor or creditors of the corporation who extend or continue credit to the corporation in consideration of the proxy, if such proxy specifically states that it was given in consideration of such extension or continuation of credit, and sets forth the amount of and the name of the person extending or continuing credit;

4.5.6.4 an officer of the corporation under an employment contract which required a proxy, if the proxy states that it was given in consideration of the contract, the name of the employee, and the period of employment contracted for;

4.5.6.5 a person, including an arbitrator, designated by or under a shareholders' agreement as provided by law.

Any such proxy shall become revocable after the pledge is redeemed, or the contract of purchase has been performed and the purchaser has become a shareholder of record, or the debt of the corporation is paid, or the period of employment stipulated in the contract of employment has been terminated, or the agreement has terminated according to law.

4.5.7 A proxy may be revoked, notwithstanding a provision making it irrevocable, by a purchaser of shares without knowledge of the existence of such provision, unless notice of the proxy and of its irrevocability plainly appears on the face or back of the certificate representing such shares.

4.6 At all meetings of the shareholders, regular or special, a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereat shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. A majority of the votes by the shareholders constituting such quorum may decide any question coming before the meeting except where otherwise provided by law. Shareholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business at the meeting or at any adjournment thereof notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of the shareholders may be adjourned from time to time, by a vote of a majority of the shares present.

4.7 When a meeting is adjourned, for whatever reason, for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in Section 2.6. Notice of a meeting adjourned for less than thirty days need not be given if the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and at the adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken.
